NEAHRD workshop underway

TURA, May 16: A three day workshop, especially for youth who are engaged in grooming and beauty services started today at the seminar hall of the North East Academy for Human Resource Development (NEAHRD). The workshop is being organised by the NEAHRD as part of its holistic skill development through trainings and total human resource development mission.

The NEAHRD was established on 28th July 2010 and since then have been actively training students and unemployed youth in various skill development activities such as Basic computer skills, communicative skills in English etc. During the year 2010 NEAHRD have successfully trained 28 students. The Academy enrolls a maximum number of 20 students per subject to give them a more through training through personal instruction and guidance.

This time round, NEAHRD have garnered the assistance of a well known beauty specialist, Ms. Babli Gambhir of Jaora in Madhya Pradesh who has also been awarded the prestigious the CavinKare Ability Mastery Awards to train the youth of Garo Hills. Ms. Gambhir was born with a disability, her hands were short and digits a couple less on both her hands. With Determination she turned her seeming weakness into her greatest strength and won the world over with. She has set up beauty salons all over the country which have been acclaimed countrywide.

Addressing the gathering Ms. Gambhir informed that she took life as a challenge and said that even though she was shunned by people for her abnormality or rather a blessing her motto in life was not “nobody likes me” but “nobody is like me”. She later urged the participants to be enthusiastic in life with a pan instinctive drive to achieve a preset goal.

Among other present at the inaugural session of the workshop were Mr. S. Gabriel, Chairman, NEAHRD, Mr. Meril N. Sangma, Secretary, NEAHRD, Mr. Carvel R. Marak, Treasurer, NEAHRD, Mr. K. C. Momin, Member, NEAHRD and Chairman, Tura Municipal Board and Mr. R. G. Momin, Member NEAHRD.
